

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Brandon, MB — Celebrate Canadian Musical Heritage at Canada Music Week

The Brandon and Westman Registered Music Teacher's Association is delighted to announce the eagerly awaited Canada Music Week celebration on Friday, November 24, featuring a Master Class with Dr. Daniel Tselyakov, followed by a concert at the Lorne Watson Recital Hall, School of Music, Brandon University. Canada Music Week is a beloved tradition that unites music enthusiasts from coast to coast to celebrate our rich Canadian musical heritage. This year, we are thrilled to continue this cherished tradition, sharing the joy of Canadian music.

Maureen Baird, president of the Manitoba Registered Music Teachers Assoc., said: "I am excited to endorse the Canada Music Week Celebrations being planned by the Brandon and Westman Branch for November 24. We look forward to hearing the music of many outstanding Canadian, and in particular, Manitoba composers. Congratulations to all participating students."
